Allinial Global Welcomes a New EMEIA Member Firm, Verallo

ATLANTA, GEORGIA June 24, 2021 — Allinial Global is pleased to welcome a new UK member firm, Verallo. Based in Henley-on-Thames, Verallo was established in 2010 and has grown quickly to provide accountancy, taxation, and business advisory services to over 500 businesses and 1,000 individuals in the surrounding area and London.

With clients ranging from high net worth individuals and small, owner-managed businesses to large international groups, Verallo has experience in a variety of sectors, including financial services, technology, media, leisure and hospitality, energy, and distribution. In addition to traditional accountancy and taxation services, the firm is experienced in providing audits of UK-based international holding companies, support for high net worth individuals, and integrated back-office solutions.

Verallo's ultra-responsive operating model incorporates the latest technology to provide real-time updated accounts, and the firm's experienced team has a reputation for delivering well-informed business insights that help clients achieve their goals and pinpoint opportunities for growth.

"It's a pleasure to welcome Verallo to Allinial Global and our EMEIA region. Verallo's client-centric approach and focus on leveraging technology to provide strategic insights make them a particularly strong addition to our worldwide community of best-in-class firms."
